“ Fred will be forever missed but never forgotten. His smile, wit and dry sense of humor and love for his family and friends was his biggest asset. I can't say good bye or so long to my best friend because you will always be in my thoughts. We will meet again later for another Saturday afternoon drink. Dave

“ Dear Bobbie and Family, We are so sorry to hear of Fred's passing. Fred was a great guy with a dry wit, and the Best Man at our wedding. He was a wonderful family man and a loving husband, We know you will all miss him very much. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love Donna and Roger Melanson PS: We love the picture, it is so Fred.

“ To Ms. Driver, I would like to send my condolences. I was deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Mr Driver. He was such a humble man who stood for what is right in the world. He along with you Ms. Driver were great supporters of education and what we did to help Julie-Anne here at Wakefield. For that I will be forever grateful. God Bless.

“ Dear Bobbie, Lorna and I wish to extend to you and your family our sorrow over Fred's passing. Never forget his dry sense of humor and especially his choice of socks to wear for bowling. He was a terrific bowler and I always enjoyed the nights we bowled. Bill and Lorna Connelly

“ Bobbie, I always admired Freds \"speak the truth and damn the consequences\" attitude. His out look was always positive and his desire to help was neverending. I will always hold dear the times we all spent together at your home or the Casino or the patio at Maddies. Words can not express our saddness. Peace

“ In the short time It's been my priveledge to know Fred, he's been an astounding and loyal friend. I feel as if I'd known fred (and Bobbie) my whole life, and not the brief four years it's actually been. But that's the kind of person Fred was. It's all about the \"quality\" of the friendship and person, and not the \"quantity\" of years known. And as everybody knows, when Fred called you friend he gave the highest quality and quantity of himself. This is the gift Fred gave most freely and most often of himself, and how I'll always remember him. Fred and Bobbie are an inspiration to me in so many ways, but mostly, as to how good honest people should be. I'll miss Fred in the physical sense, but I know he's booked the rooms for us all when we get \"there\" to see him again. I'll see you soon dear friend! With love and respect...and awe, Frank

“ Bobbie-I know I've told you this, but just wanted you to know again that I am sorry for your loss. Fred was a very nice man and I really enjoyed how proud he was of that \"Dale Earnhardt Lumina Special\" parked in your garage. It was fun to talk NASCAR with him. Hey, maybe he will get to talk to Dale after all!! You're a sweet lady and I hope we can get together for lunch. Always, Pat Dixon

“Bobbie...I was very sorry to hear about Fred. So many fond memories of you both...bowling, the house in Greenwood, 4th of July at Lake Q. Fred always said about you that he was lucky...that he \"got one of the good ones\". And, I know that all of us who were lucky enough to know him felt the same about Fred as a friend...we got one of the good ones. My deepest condolences to you and your family.

“\"Keep smiling\", those were the last words that Fred spoke to me. He told me that everytime that he left after getting his hair cut. I knew what he meant by those words! He gave me a deep message in a concise manner. Fred had a way with words and I marveled at listening to him because he had a gift to see the \"whole picture\". He was truly wise. He summed up a situation quickly and responded in a witty and wise and creative way. He inspired me to think more deeply about what we were talking about. We had lots of fun talking about the \"old country\"...Rex Trailer, the weather, marshmallow FLUFF...\"How many cookies did Andrew eat? Hey, Fred what color sox do you have on today? Bobbie and he are one in million. Thanks for your presence in my life. Marianna

“Fred was my neighbor for over four years, I wish I had known him longer. Fred had a way of always seeing the bright side of life, I loved his sense of humor, his kind smile. Seeing the love his family had for him in his last days was truly heartwarming. The last thing he said to me was \"keep smiling\". His presence is deeply missed. Semper Fi, Marine.
